When you select Hugh Harris for your wedding attire you'll enjoy unrivalled choice, quality, service and professional expertise from a modern company with extensive experience in the formal menswear market.

Established in 1914, we offer you the very best from traditional outfitting to contemporary styling to ensure that you and your party are impeccably dressed on your big day. Whether you hire or buy, there's a huge range of styles, fabrics, colours and accessories to be discovered at our showroom. Our stock is continually updated with the latest fashions and our skilled staff are on hand to guide you in creating an elegant, well-fitting and individual look.

QUALITY AND CHOICE

As independent specialists we're free to source our own fabrics and tailoring, ensuring consistently high quality across our wide range of traditional morning wear, designer clothing and evening attire. Importantly this means that we offer many unique styles available exclusively through us.

DESIGNER WEAR

As an out of the ordinary alternative, an exciting range of new styles has recently been introduced by renowned designer, Oswald Boateng. Garments are available to hire or purchase, with viewing by appointment. With exquisite lines and fabrics, any Oswald Boateng product will ensure quality, comfort and flair.

PAGE BOYS

Formal wear for children is a real show stopper, so it's important that page boys and younger members of your party are dressed as smartly as you are. We provide children's sizes in most of the same styles and colours, with the same attention to detail and comfort as for adult garments.

CUSTOMER SERVICE
For modern men, a wedding is often the first occasion when they must be formally attired. We understand the uncertainty this can cause and we'll take whatever time you require to help you choose your style, perfect the details and achieve the right fit. Once you've selected your garments, you can rely on our stock control systems to ensure that everything will be ready for you on time. We've built our reputation on providing excellent service and ensuring a hassle-free experience for our clients.

Discounts are available for groups of 6 or more people and also for 'complete set' outfits. When 3 or more outfits are hired, we offer low cost delivery or collection within a 25 mile radius of our showroom. We also offer cost-effective optional insurance cover against loss or damage.

If you would like to view our range, you may wish to telephone us in advance to find out about less busy times or to make an appointment.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT ?
If you still can't find that special style you're looking for, you can purchase it made to order ! We use specialist manufacturers and tailors who offer a flexible and individual service, with prices starting at £195.00.
